

Alison Marie Baker

January 15, 1976 - March 28, 2021

Alison Marie Baker passed away on March 28, 2021. She was 45.

Alison was born on January 15, 1976, in Blacksburg, VA, to Eddie and Judi Baker.

A graduate of Emory and Henry College, Alison joined the family business at Positive Radio Group. She was Manager of radio stations ESPN Blacksburg and Classic Hits Z101.3.

A gentle soul with a positive spirit, Alison enjoyed nature, hiking, gardening, and also enjoyed video games. She was an energetic person with a radiant personality. Even in the most trying of circumstances, she could inspire anyone to smile.

Alison is survived by her parents, Eddie and Judi Baker of Riner; her sisters Diane Baker and Michelle Hall and husband Seth, and her brother Alan Baker and his wife Audrey of Blacksburg, VA. She is also survived by her grandmothers, Virginia Baker of Blacksburg, VA and Edith Jones of Virginia Beach, VA plus many Aunts, Uncles and Cousins from coast to coast.

Visitation will be held on Friday, April 2, 2021, from 1 to 2 p.m., at McCoy Funeral Home. A funeral service will follow. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance at <https://w>

Tribute Wall

HW

“ My sincere condolences to the Baker Family and all those close to Alison. I am an extremely distant cousin and did not know her personally, but from the tributes I have read, I believe she was a positive spirit and a blessing to those who knew her well. May God be close to each of those who need peace and comfort at this specific time.

“ Alison always had the brightest smile. She seemed to look at the positive side of things no matter the challenge. She always put family and friends first and she exhibited the family's traits of kindness to others and an incredible work ethic. So easy to get along with. I will remember Alison's days playing the flute in high school band and just living her life with purpose and intention. We share our deepest condolences with the family.
