“ I was fortunate to count Anna as one of my very good friends for many years. We shared so many laughs and little journeys - kayaking after work, a truly unforgettable camping trip to the Eastern Shore where we tried- but failed- to outrun a Nor'Easter- and countless other memories so happily made with someone who resonated with all of nature, cared deeply for her family, and laughed heartily. Thank you for sharing Anna with us. My sincerest condolences to all of her friends and family.
