

Anne Joanne Kinsel Wolford

December 17, 1938 - December 21, 2021

WOLFORD

Anne J. (Kinsel)

Anne J. (Kinsel) Wolford, 83, of Blacksburg, Virginia died, 21 December 2021. She was born in Alliance, Ohio December 17, 1938 and was the daughter of Isabelle (Ricks) and Donald Raymond Kinsel. Anne is preceded by her husband, John Wolford. She is survived by her daughters, Joanne Wolford of the Netherlands and Lara Schiefelbein, son-in-law William, grandchildren Evelyn and Noah Schiefelbein of Georgia, and sister Margaret McDonough of Michigan. Anne graduated from Redford High School in Michigan; and attended Wayne State University, Cornell University, and Virginia Tech where she received her BS, MS, and EdD degrees. She served academically at Michigan State University and Virginia Tech in county and state-wide extension programs, with the American Nursing Credentialing Center Research Institute, and was associated with the Kettering Foundation. Per Anne's request, there will be no services.

Tribute Wall

LT

“Lara and Joanne, I am so sorry to learn of your mom's death. I shared good times with her through Girl Scout projects and middle-school angst. She was a remarkable person and so proud of you "girls". Lynn Thye.

Lynn Thye - December 27, 2021 at 06:16 PM

LD

“I hope good memories will comfort family and friends. Anne and I worked together on Kettering projects. She was an unfailingly kind, funny, bright, and knowledgeable person from whom I learned so much. I will miss knowing she is in this world. Rest in peace, dear Anne. Larkin Dudley

Larkin Dudley - December 27, 2021 at 10:56 AM

BW

“Lara, Joanne, and Family: I am so sorry for your loss. Anne and I worked together in Virginia Cooperative Extension at Virginia Tech. I enjoyed talking with her in October. She was kind, caring, and generous. My prayers for all of you for peace and comfort as you remember this special lady. Barbara

Barbara Waller - December 22, 2021 at 06:38 PM