“ My dear sweet sister Barbara,

You always were better at everything we did than me. Teachers always said "we had your sister, Barbara, in class and she was an excellent student". So of course I had to study extra hard to try to outdo you. Now you have beat me again, you made it to Heaven before me. Well, just know that when I get there, you better be ready with open arms because I want the biggest hug ever. I enjoyed the time we always spent together (especially over the last year with our extra long visits) and I miss you and will never forget the good times we had together. Until we meet again you will live on forever in my heart.

*Love,
Pat*

“ To my sister, "Bob"...my sister, my advisor, my friend, my beacon of light during stormy times. You always knew what was best for me...and never failed to tell me! Like..."put something on your head when it's windy,better stay out of that hot sun,". And of course, when I was upset about something or somebody, t h e..."I don't believe I'd say that if I were you!".I will never forget your words and was proud to. call you my "Other Mother". I love you and you will live in my heart forever.

“ Aunt Barbara, you will be missed. I will cherish forever all the fun times we've had. The beach trips, the trips to just stay at your house or your trips to visit us in TN. So much laughter, love and happiness! Everyone always says I'm so much like you and that is something I've always been proud of. We were both so emotional and typing this right now I'm emotional now too. But we always said that's okay to be emotional it just means you love your family and there's nothing wrong with that. I know you are with Granny Clark and Grandpa Clark now and that really puts a smile on my face! Til we meet again sweet Aunt Barbara! Love you forever!
