“ I haven't seen Bruce for years, but this news breaks my hgeart in ways I can't explain. I knew him since 6th grade, and never, nver, did I hear a mean word. If he piucked on anyone, it was in good fun and with good sp[irit. and we all new it. He had a genuinely good heart. To run into Bruce was to add another hundred watts of light to the room...at least. Godspeed, ole buddy.

“ I grew up knowing Bruce and Brian, as friends of my brothers (Craig), but around 1985-1987 era, met their grandmother and (who I thought was HER dog) Peppi. Virginia was moving to a different apartment with stairs and could not take Peppi and Bruce was unable to take her back. I said “YES” before even asking my parents. From that day on, Virginia was family to me. I visited her every week, with Peppi, and most weeks would run into Bruce, Brian or Bob when I was visiting. Bruce used to joke with me and ask me how it was that I came to have her. Virginia attended my high school graduation. After all, she was family. The last time I saw Bruce was at Virginia's funeral in 1997. He had a big grin on his face and said “You never, one time, forgot to bring Peppi. You were never too busy. You always did and I'll always remember you for it”. I gave him a big hug and thanked him for letting me be a small part of his grandmothers life. I haven't seen Bruce, since that day, but he knew, how much I adored him for my precious Peppi! Rest In Peace Bruce!

“ I am so very saddened to hear this news. I remember babysitting for him when he was so little. I thought he was the most adorable child and I enjoyed being around him. We communicated through Facebook recently and he remembered me and watching Born Free when I watched over him. God is taking care of him in a way that we can't even imagine. He was “Brucie” to me and I will never forget him. Please know that I am keeping all of you in prayer. Most Sincerely, Chandra Beane Meath.
