“ I don't know if this was my first impression of Carole, if not it was close and obviously a lasting impression.

When my daughter was born, my son was 3. Jim and Carole came by to visit us and see our newborn. When they came, they brought a gift for my daughter which was very nice of them to do so. To our surprise, they also brought a gift for our son. This was not expected and our hearts were filled with joy that people could be so caring.

It never occurred to me that a sibling might feel left out when a newborn shares the attention that was solely belonging to them previously. However, Carole and Jim are good people. That's what good people do. They are generous and look beyond the obvious. They know that every action has a reaction and to make sure that everyone's feelings are considered before you act.

Thank you Carole, we will miss you. You were a very good person.

“ Dear Jim and family, I shall always remember Carole as being beautiful, graceful, friendly and one who deeply loved her husband, her son, her daughter and her grandchildren. There was even plenty of love left for cousins! You and Carole planned a wonderful reunion for the Poland first cousins when you were in Colonial Beach; this memory will be in my heart forever. I love you and send my deepest sympathies.
