“ Words do not do much at a time like this. Just know that there are many who share your sorrow for Catherine. I will always remember her as a soft spoken, gentle if not quiet person. I will miss her smile. A fine lady that I was lucky to have priviledge of knowing.”

“ My heartfelt sympathy on the loss of Catherine, one of my dearest friends and a perfect example of a Christian lady. She and I worked together on the Blacksburg Christian Church yard sale each year and I was amazed at her dedication and willingness to spend hours for our Disciples Women Ministry fundraisers. She was always cheerful and I never heard an unkind word come from her, she loved everybody and most of all her Lord. RIP Catherine. We'll miss you and remember you with great admiration and love.
