“ I’m so sad to just now see this. My mother, Dolores Edmondson and Cindy’s Mom, Wanda were high school friends, so Cindy and I got to spend time whenever our Mothers weee together. I can only imagine they talked a lot around the time Cindy & I were born. Cindy is just 3 days older than me. We always enjoyed getting to see one another. Yes, Cindy was such a sweetheart. Heaven gained another angel. Prayers to the family.

“ Kevin and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Cindy was such a kind and loving person who touched so many lives. As teenagers, Cindy and I were bridesmaids in one of our classmates wedding. We had the best time and that’s when I found out what a beautiful person Cindy was inside and out, a true blessing. May you all be comforted by the love and prayers being sent during this difficult time and always.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Cindy's family. I grew up knowing Cindy and Carolyn, as our dads worked together. Later I reconnected with Cindy through our health struggles. Cindy was truly one of a kind, so much like Wanda. May God grant each of you peace during the upcoming days and weeks ahead.

“ When I think about Cindy, I believe she was probably my first “best friend.” Our neighborhood and church families were very intertwined. Although our lives moved in different directions when the Croys moved from Radford to Blacksburg, I always had happy memories of sweet Cindy and I playing together in the neighborhood and at Radford Christian Church. My heart goes out to the family.

“ dear Kevin, Kaleb and Rachel when I think of Cindy I can remember how she was always smiling and always had time to talk. She was a brave soul and withstood all the health issues she had to go thru. I was always glad to see Kaleb at PFE. Gary and I appreciate him taking the time to come to some of Ethan's basketball games. we will pray for the Lord to be with your whole family as you go thru this sad time

To Cindy's family; I don't know you personally but I know of you and I knew Cindy all her life. I was born and raised in McCoy and she went to school with my nieces and nephews. And there's no other way to describe Cindy than to say what a sweet and wonderful woman she was, a lot like her mother. Sending prayers and sympathy for all of you and her homecoming to heaven, resting in the arms of our Lord, I hope will bring some comfort and peace for her family. Sincerely Joy Albert Nester and son, Bernard.
