

Donatus Ohanehi

October 12, 1949 - April 14, 2022

Donatus Ohanehi was called home to his Lord on April 14, 2022. He was a research scientist and instructor at Virginia Tech in in several Engineering departments. He had also worked as a Senior Engineer for Kollmorgen Corporation. He was born in Nigeria and came to the United States to attend college. He earned his PhD at Virginia Tech in 1980 and remained in Blacksburg. He was a dedicated Christian and had many close friends. His beloved family grieves their loss but rejoices that he is he is at rest with God. His sisters Anastasia Nwamarabia Okechukwu, Perpetua Ngozi Iloduba, Mary Bernadette Ifunanya Ohanehi are in Nigeria and his brother, Emmanuel Emeka Ohanehi is in Qatar. There will be a private burial. A memorial gathering is planned for this summer. "I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus." Philippians 3:14. Arrangements by McCoy Funeral Home, Blacksburg.

Cemetery Details

Memorial Gardens of the New River Valley

2551 N. MAIN ST.
BLACKSBURG, VA 24060

Tribute Wall

CW

“ Don was a member of our Community Bible Group and shared his faith with all of us. His insights were always welcome and we will miss him greatly.

Charlie Whitescarver - May 06, 2022 at 11:32 AM

DO

I echo what Charlie said. Don was a blessing to many as we studied God's word together. He always had unique perspectives that enriched all of our understanding. We miss him but also celebrate that he is dancing with Jesus!

Doug - May 06, 2022 at 02:09 PM

PC

“ Pam Conner lit a candle in memory of Donatus Ohanehi

Pam Conner - May 05, 2022 at 07:16 AM