“ I will miss you so much my precious "sister-cousin" No one will ever again say my name like you, no one else will share our memories, both childhood and adult. I hurt for me in losing you, but I rejoice for you that you are with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ now and are more joyous, more peaceful and more free than any of us will ever be until we get there!!! I'll love you always.

Donna had such a light and spirit about her! She was a gift to our ladies group meetings at Pioneer Church. Fly high sweet lady. Until we meet again. Sandy Wilkins “ Donna went with a group of us to a Women’s Conference in Tennessee one year. We had such a wonderful time. She was so thoughtful and gave us all a bag with gifts. She would wake early and take her coffee out on the deck to read the Bible and pray. She loved God so much.

After she moved from Eden to Christiansburg we were able to see her more often. I loved playing games with her and talking with her.

I know she is with her Savior now and that she is blessed beyond measure.

I will miss you, Donna until we meet again on Heaven’s shore. Love, Teasie
