“Doris loved this photo of her and my uncle, Lee. They were “cutting up the rug” in 1990. Now they are cutting up the rug again in heaven. I sure do miss both of them. RIP, Doris. ❤️

Worked with Doris, went to the beach, concerts, and some fun parties. She was silly and fun with a huge heart for others. She's reunited now with her Lee that she loves so much. Fly high my friend.

“July 26, 2024. Doris Dickerson Cochran was my sister-in-law. Prayers for her whole family and all her friends. The picture is from Chase and Rachel Witt. She was the widow of my brother Lee Cochran. My wife, Sarah and I traveled a lot with Lee and Doris and had many cookouts with them. She will be missed. May she RIP. Glenn and Sarah Cochran

*Doris and I were friends in high school. Lost connection after graduation. Reconnected when I went to work at Hubbell. Doris was the sweetest person, always chipper and never a dull moment.
Rest in peace my friend.*
