“ I am honored to have met Miss Elizabeth at Heritage Hall. She was a regular at our church service. She was a sweet, Christian lady who loved her family and friends very much. She will be greatly missed.

Love and prayers to the dear family

“ I met Ms. Robinson at the Commonwealth Assisted Living when I was caring for two of my relatives. She was one of the sweetest women that I had ever known. I couldn't wait to get there so I could chat with Ms. Robinson a few minutes each day. She would always be reading her Bible. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I loved that woman. She was so kind!

“ It's so wonderful to know we'll be able to see Aunt Lizzie again in heaven one day. I have fond memories of visiting Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Floyd with my family when I was younger. They'd let my siblings and I go play in the creek on their property and we'd try to catch crawdads. I wish I could be there to mourn her absence and celebrate her promotion to heaven in person - sending all my love ❤️! -Amber Walker
