

Eric Taylor Gregory

October 14, 2023

On Saturday, October 14th, Eric Taylor Gregory, 67, finished his battle with colon cancer. He moved to palliative care on Friday and passed peacefully the next morning holding his wife's hand as the solar eclipse started over San Antonio, his home town.

Eric was a caring and supportive husband and father who loved his family well. He was a successful architect and worked on many beautiful buildings including the Eric Carle Museum of Picture Book Art in Amherst, Massachusetts. An incredible chef, scale model railroader, and model builder (or collector of enough unbuilt models to open his own store), he enjoyed creating and sharing with others. He had a quiet demeanor with a wonderful wit and he will be dearly missed.

He is survived by his wife, Kitty; two children, Savanna and Sean; and three grandchildren, Asher, Eden and Harper.

He will have a Service of Death and Resurrection on Thursday, Oct 19, at 2:00 pm at the Blacksburg Methodist Church, which will be followed by a fellowship gathering.

"But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body." Philippians 3:20-21

“ Eric is already greatly missed by his Saturday morning coffee klatch. His kindness, wit, generosity of spirit and time, are all marks of a remarkable man. Rest in peace and continue to watch over those you loved with such strength and kindness.

“ My favorite memory of Eric is Kitty telling me that after they brought Savanna home from the hospital, she went into the nursery to find Eric sleeping on the floor next to the crib. Nothing was going to happen to that baby on his watch! Rest in peace Eric--You've earned it.
