“ My uncle whom I only got the chance to see once a year but the great memories are with me for life. I always remember there always seemed to be a natural smile on his face and always a welcome feeling I had when I was in his presence. Aunt Hazel, Lorrie, and Brian our hearts are with you now and always as You share the bond of blood, love , closeness that we know we have through our family. Distance does not make the pain we all share any easier, for the loss of this great father, husband, and uncle. We love you all, and you have our hearts. “ My sincerest condolences to Hazel, Lorrie, Brian and family. I had the pleasure of knowing Jack and Hazel from attending Level Green Christian Church as a little girl. Jack's unwavering faith in God touched my life in ways he may not have even realized! I was always touched by his love for Hazel and his family. Most times that I would pass by Jack's house, he was always busy either mowing, or working in his garden or sitting on the porch with one or more of his great grandchildren. He was never idle! Many years ago I went on a tour bus to Nashville to hear Billy Graham speak. It just happened Jack and Hazel were on the same bus with us. During our trip Hazel went with us to walk around the Opryland Motel. The song "Livin' On Love" by Alan Jackson was playing. Hazel said "That's OUR song!!" I have never forgotten her saying that to me. She and Jack exemplified true love. You could "feel" the love between them. I was walking my dog a few weeks at the church behind Jack's house. All of a sudden this little "golf cart like" vehicle came speeding up the hill. It was Jack, Hazel and Ashlyn. We stopped and chatted awhile. I will hold that memory dear to my heart. Our little community has lost a good man and it won't be the same without Jack here with us, but He has met Jesus and has received the gift of Heaven!! We know we will see him again and are better people for having known Jack. My prayers are with his family now and also for the journey ahead. In Christian Love, Karen Link.

“ Jack was one special man that never lived a day without lending a hand to others... he and my mom had a fun time together .. she always talked about Jack! Said he helped her with cards and they all loved their square dancing.. Hazel and Jack are so very special to our family and we love them so much! Hugs and prayers for all the family and I bet he and mom are having a dance and a card game in Heaven together... love and hugs Cindy Shelor (Linda and Gary's daughter)

“ Many years ago my Mom and I were very fortunate to have Jack and Hazel as next door neighbors. We had many fun times, playing a board game called “aggravation”, playing croquet out in the yard and spending many fun Saturdays at the New River sandbar below Newport. I remember Jack kept his milk cow at our barn and would come over every evening to milk “Shay”. Those days were so much calmer than today, days full of enjoyment and love. Mom and I could not have ask for better neighbors than Jack and Hazel and two wonderful people who went on to become life long friends. My prayers are with Hazel, Lorrie Ann and Brian and their families. Jack and Hazel had a wonderful spiritual relationship with Jesus and I hope the family finds comfort in knowing they will all be together on day.
