“ I've had the pleasure of knowing Faye through my brother Tim (and his lovely wife Susan, of course) for these past 45 years, but really knowing her for the past 10. Mike and I had given Tim and Susan some pickled beets and some bread and butter pickles that we had made. They hate beets and took them and the pickles to McCoy. Big hit down there. Faye started with a mailed thank you note, saying how much her husband loved the beets and that she saved the juice for hard boiled eggs for him. Thus started a 10 year letter and email correspondence that ended only 3 months ago. She was one if the sweetest, sharpest, kindest, nicest and compassionate women I've ever known. I will miss our middle of the night e-chats
