“ I'm al friend of the Estes Family in Behalf of Paul Muncy Jr And Family. Uncle Freddie will be greatly missed. Paul Jr since the passing of his Uncle has shared so many fun memories with Us that Freddie was a Funny Man to be around and to make you laugh just like his Grandfather, Shorty Estes or some known him by Junior Estes. Freddie was Juniors Baby Brother the Estes Family are such Wonderful people to be around. Everyone of them has a Beautiful Smile when you see them. We will miss you very much and see you soon Our Heavenly Brother 🙏❤️🙏

We lived beside Fred seen him. Every day ..He wood come sit on our porch for hours..I would pick on him about our mean old turkey.I remember the day my sister ask Fred did he want a cane cause he was walking with a stick he said yea she went & got it for him he went OH BOY he was so happy to get that cane....Fred would. Back up in front of our trailor he would make faces at us or he would stick his tounge out it would make his day us picking on him ..we would take Fred Thanksgiving & Christmas dinner to him he was so happy to get it or we would have a cook out we always took him something to eat...my husband would go help him on his truck put oil in it.My husband cut a tree down in his yard Fred told us it looked like a bear lol..FRED YOU WILL BE MISSED BY LISA & TACO WE LOVED IT WHEN WE LIVED NEXT TO YOU . YOU WAS THE BEST NEIGHBOR ANY BODY COULD ASK FOR...LOVE & MISS YOU FRED YOU WILL STAY IN MY HEART FOR EVER LISA
