

George Weedon Curtis

July 8, 1929 - October 11, 2024

George Weedon Curtis born July 8, 1929 passed away at his home on October 11, 2024 at the age of 95 surrounded by his family.

He served 20+ years in the United States Air Force as an Administrative Supervisor and Comptroller, retiring as a Master Sergeant. He went on to work for the Virginia Employment Commission as a Deputy and worked part-time as an Assistant Manager for Triangle Lanes. He was inducted into the USBC NRV Association Bowling Hall of Fame in 2007 and was an accomplished bowler whose team won the United States Air Force World-Wide Bowling Tournament two times, while placing third in singles. He loved golf, fishing at Buckroe Beach and sweet potato pie. But mostly he loved his family and they loved him. "Yaya" as he was known by his many grandchildren and great-grandchildren helped raise three generations.

George "Curt" was preceded in death by his wife Bernie Curtis, his parents John Chancellor & Nora Weedon Curtis, siblings Harold, John, Russell, Ashton, Mabel, Willard, Stanley, and Jean, a daughter in-law Nancy Payne Curtis and grandson Sky Charles Curtis.

He is survived by his children Forrest & Nancy Curtis, Craig & Linda Curtis, Mark Curtis, Lori & Dean Walls, and Lynn & Cathy Curtis. In addition, his grandchildren John Hayden Curtis, Brian Curtis Walls & Helen Lynn, Jada & Wayne Fingleton, Russell & Amy Walls, Chad and Deserae Curtis, Ryan & Crystal Curtis, Taylor Walls-Carr, Whitney Walls, Charles & Emily Curtis, Cassandra & Andrew Murray, James & Chelsea Curtis. His great-grandchildren Morgan Carr, Olivia Fingleton, Lilly Tussing, Kayla Fingleton, Buddy Fingleton, Samuel Curtis, Lucy Walls, Lorita (L.J.) Murray, Estella Curtis, Owen Curtis, Norah Curtis, Dylan Curtis, Adalynn Walls, Meredith Curtis, and Rosie Murray. All of his special nieces and nephews. Good friends Gerry Zirk, Pete & Julie Wesel, Adell Adkins and Pastor Tommy McDearis. Thank you to the special friends at Curt's in Peterstown, WV who kept him entertained and gave him an enjoyment in life. He would visit them 3 to 4 times a week and was usually a winner.

“ After returning from OBX, we learned of Mr. Curtis's passing. Thinking of all his family during this sad time. I stayed at their home with Lori, many times. Mr. & Mrs. Curtis always treated me as if I were their own. Big hugs, and comforting prayers are being sent to all. Heaven has gained another Angel.
