Gertrude V Nicosia died Tuesday evening, September 8, 2020. She was 97 years old, but mostly 98, because had she lived 3 more weeks she would have celebrated her 98th birthday. Gert is survived by her daughter, Delores McDowell, of Christiansburg, VA, her two step-sons, James and Jeffery Nicosia both of the Gloversville/Broadalbin area in New York. Also by daughter-in-law, Melissa Nicosia, and son-in-law, George McDowell. Grandchildren surviving her are: , Jennifer Taylor, Kristin Schur, James Nicosia, Nicole Krawczeski, Jeffery Nicosia, Lindsey Zucker, Samantha Brooks, Jerusha Brooks, Kimberly McDowell, Laura McDowell, as well as numerous great-grandchildren. Much of her family is in the Gloversville/Broadalbin area of New York but others are in the Riner/Christiansburg area of Virginia.

Upon cremation, Gertrude will be buried in Gloversville, NY beside her beloved Anthony (Tony) Nicosia who preceded her in death in August 2008. A graveside memorial gathering will await the Spring of 2021 and hopefully, the end of the pandemic.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Ms. Gertrude was a lovely person. She gave me an African violet which blooms continuously. We became friends when she lived at Warm Hearth. God Bless each of you.
