

Gregory Lee Toler

August 13, 1961 - January 31, 2026

Gregory Lee Toler, born August 13, 1961, in Beckley, West Virginia, was a man whose presence filled every room with laughter and warmth.

Gregory was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Carol Marie Toler, whom he loved dearly.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 42 years, Susan Toler, the love of his life and faithful partner through every season; his loving father, Ulvert Jackson Toler; his brother, Kenneth Toler (Debi Toler). He also leaves behind his cherished children: Jeremy Toler, Caleb Toler, Miranda Taylor (Brandon Taylor), and Emily Toler. Gregory's greatest joy was being "Papaw" to his six treasured grandchildren: Brysen Taylor, Brooks Taylor, Brantley Taylor, Bridger Taylor, Kehlani Toler, and Mailea Toler, each of whom brought light and laughter to his life. Gregory also leaves behind many nieces and nephews whom he loved very much.

Gregory was truly the life of the party—always ready with a joke, a story, or a smile that could lift even the heaviest heart. His sense of humor was matched only by his generous spirit and his deep love for those around him.

Above all else, Gregory loved the Lord and lived his life grounded in faith, family, and love. His legacy is one of joy, devotion, and unwavering belief—a legacy that will continue through the lives of all who knew and loved him.

Visitation will be held on February 11th at 9:00 a.m., with the funeral service to follow at 11:00 a.m. at GraceLife Baptist Church, Christiansburg Virginia. Followed with a burial held at sunset cemetery in Beckley West Virginia.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ I am so sorry for Greg's passing. He was always a great friend, no matter how long it had been since we seen each other! We went to high school together. He was always the comedian of our gang. I could tell endless stories about our time of running together, but I better not do that!
Love and prayers to Susan and his family!

“Tons of great memories with Greg, too many to mention here.

Once, riding home from work, midnight, wide open in that little Sentra he had with one headlight so far out of alignment, people probably thought we were coon hunting at speed.

Half way up the mountain I felt it. A slight miss in the engine. I turned to Greg, he was holding the wheel tight, and I asked him if we were going to make it. He said, “I don’t know”.

It happened. Puckering vibration. Then, it felt like it was running on two cylinders.

I told him to pull over but he said no, he was trying to get to the park and ride so we wouldn’t have to walk.

We made it there, popped the hood and I think I lost an eyebrow. The exhaust manifold was glowing enough to read a newspaper.

He let it sit, and the next day tried to start it, he made it just out of the park and ride, and a piston blew out the side. He left it, and the town towed it off. Crazy.

Again, lots of stories, in and out of work. We’ve lost a good one!

My condolences to Sue, Jeromy, Miranda, Emily, Caleb, and family. May he find peace from this crazy world.

*Sincerely,
Tracy*

I worked at Yokohama and knew Greg as one of the best maintenance men we had to work on our fickle machines...always smiling and joking around as he worked. I retired over ten years ago and hadn't seen him until recently at a local medical facility. I saw him about three weeks ago and didn't realize that was the last time. Prayers and condolences for his family.
