“ The world is a lesser place without my friend Alex. We spent countless hours talking muskies, talking hunting, and just talking life in general. I was blessed to have spent so much time with Alex over the years. So many memories..... I was there the day he caught his largest Muskie. 42lbs. I will cherish all the great times, and all the conversations we had. Alex will always be one of my heroes. What an incredible man.... What an incredible life. Rest In Peace my friend. I will see you again one day.

“ On behalf of my dad and our family — Alex was clearly one of those rare souls who made everyone around him better. My dad thought the world of him, and that friendship from high school was one he cherished his whole life. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. May God bless you with His peace. 🙏 ”

“ Alex was one Heck of a nice guy. Never heard him say anything negative about anyone. Never saw him angry. His parents were very patient with me as teenagers, while I spent as much time at his house as I did my own. Taught me everything I knew about playing guitar and catching catfish. I never had a better friend. He taught me how to pull ashes in 1965. Now he is up in Heaven fishing and I am still here pulling ashes on my furnace. He had the fastest 59 Cheverolet on earth, and yes we wrecked it. Our prayers are with all of you. May God Bless you with his Peace.

Praying for the family as you mourn his passing and celebrate his journey to heaven to be reunited with Donna, Dudley and Faye. What a very special family as we grew up together in church. He'll be missed.

I'd like to share a story about Alex. Alex was Mom's neighbor. He would often walk up her driveway as he was out getting his exercise. If she was sitting on her back porch, he would always stop to say hello. She enjoyed and appreciated their visits. One day Mom wanted to pick flowers for Zana. She knew she was not strong enough to walk to the garden so she got in her car and drove close to the flower bed. Before she could cut the flowers and return to the car, she fell. It was a blessing that Alex was walking at that time. He gently picked her up and made sure she was not hurt as he helped her back in the car and made sure she was safely back in the house. I know Mom and Daddy will be happy to see Alex again in Heaven. Praying God will comfort all here on earth that are mourning his passing.
