“ My grandma Mary Alls worked with Haven for many years. I always enjoyed when we would run into him and Maxine. After I had children of my own, whenever I saw them out somewhere, he always bragged on my kids. Such a kind man. Sending our condolences to Maxine and family 🙏

“ Many will remember him waving from his chair as they passed by his home, but I will always remember him getting up from that chair to show me a new trinket he bought at an auction in his display case. I'll remember him laughing as he told me a story from his past about working for the veterinarian's office or about the time I ran away from their house to find Nana Cook and scared him to death. I'll remember being a little girl sitting with him on their old front porch in their rocking chairs, slicing and sharing an apple, and looking out over their front lawn on a sunny day. Mostly, though, I'll remember the love I felt for him and the warmth of his smile and hugs. I can't wait to see you again someday, Pawpaw. Thank you for all the love and memories.
