“ We heard the night of Ira's funeral that is was held during that day. We are so very saddened that we missed the service. We were out of town for a couple of weeks and were unaware that the service was held. Ira was such a faithful member of our church and we are so sorry that we weren't there to pay our respects to such a wonderful man. Please know that we will be praying and thinking of all of you.

*Prayers,

“ Ira was a beautiful soul. He was always cheerful when I had the pleasure to talk with him
He has been missed at church the last few years when he wasn't able to attend because of his health but it never stopped him in supporting our church financially and with his love of the church and its people. He will be missed and I would like to offer my condolences and prayers to his family.
