“ I remember that we would always arm wrestle when he would go in and out of the gates when he worked at the arsenal. Never will forget him.

“ Dear Grandpa Jimmy,

I miss the simple days. When I would sit at my parents' restaurant (Dynasty in Salem, VA) and wait for your car to park in the handicap spot, on the same day every week. Then see you guys come eat food and chat with us for hours. I always remember when you used to remind me of, I asked you when I was younger. When I asked "are you really my parent's parents? You don't look like them." I was so confused at the time but grew up to learn that family doesn't always have to be blood related or look alike. Ending up becoming more than just a regular customer, but a part of the family.

Love,
Your grandson Andy Lin

“ I just seen on here about James’s passing and I am right now devastated.... I will never forget this man. James had helped me through so much in my life from recovery to spiritual growth in the Lord. James had stuck by my side and I will always cherish his memory. Love and much prayer to his wife Coleen, I love you and miss you so much.

So sorry for the passing of our dear friend Reverend James (Jimmy) Kittinger. Sending my deepest condolences to Coleen! I have really enjoyed the times we shared together singing and playing music. Praising the Lord and riding motorcycles with them for years . He was a very talented musician. A true man of God. We will miss him! Our loss but heavens gain. We will see him again someday. Praise the Lord! Love and prayers to Coleen and family. 🙏🙏🙏❤️
