“ Just today learned of Dale's passing. He and I were classmates from 1st grade through graduation at Liberty Hall High School. Dale was the class valedictorian. Then, as later, Dale was unassuming, but had a sense of humor. I had not seen him, until recent class reunions. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ Tinker and I were welcomed at Harvest Baptist by the Olivers in 1984 and one of the sweetest friendships began. Dr. Oliver was our Sunday School teacher and Pat was our choir director. We grew in the Lord by watching their lives lived for Jesus. I can't thank you enough for opening your home to us many times! We are so saddened by Dr. Oliver's passing, but rejoice that he is Home. We love you.

“ Dr. Oliver was my first boss at Virginia Tech. He was so very kind to me and Gary while Gary was finishing his degree. He was one of my two favorite bosses. I was so taken when he and Mrs. Oliver came to my mother's visitation at St. Mary's. Shows the type of true gentleman he was. Sending sincere condolences to his family.

“ Since Deb was one of my best childhood friends I was frequently at the Oliver's home. Dale Oliver was the same at home as he was outside the home, kind, gentle, interested, respectful yet willing to share his opinions. I was made to feel important by being included in conversations and being asked for my opinions. He was a humble servant both in the community and in the church, being faithful in his service over many years. I never heard him speak of these roles or his accomplishments. I will miss him.

“ Dr and Mrs Oliver were the first to welcome and host me as a guest in their home when I visited Blacksburg and the Harvest Baptist Church in the spring of 1984. Their warmth and welcome has never been forgotten. God's blessings for Mrs. Oliver and daughters, Brenda and Debbie and all those who grieve his passing.
