“ I graduated from high school with Janice, and she was always a sweet and friendly person. I got to talk to her a few weeks ago by phone, and it was good to catch up with her. May God comfort all of her loved ones during these hard times. Jim Counts

“ There was never a time I walked into Cosmo and didn't spend my whole shopping trip talking and catching up with her. I missed her so much when she retired. The very last time I spoke with her she had called into work and I had answered that night. As soon as she heard my voice she asked if this was Becca! I couldn't believe she recognized me! I was so happy to talk with her again even for a moment. I'm going to muss her but I know we will all see her again soon and she is in a far better place than we are now. Sending love and prayers to the family💜
