“ We are sorry to hear of losing Janis in this world. However, we know she is with Jesus and many loved ones and that we will see here again. I can imagine how happy and busy she is in Heaven...enjoying it all! Our love and prayers for comfort go out to the family and her close friends. She was loved by us as well.

“ Janis loved people and she loved to laugh, making her a joy to know. She faithfully witnessed to everyone she met, sharing the way to God through Christ. She was a great friend.

“ Janis was a shining believer in Christ. She embodied Christian joy and cheerfulness. Even when she lost her dear sisters Jewel and Opal she bravely rejoiced that they were in the presence of the King. And she never missed a chance to give the gospel. A true Kingdom builder for Christ Jesus. I will never forget Janis and pray to become more like Jesus because of her.

“ This is one of the finest ladies I've ever met. So full of life and such an incredible sense of humor. She read every word of every local news and sports story and would quickly call me and others about all/anything Blacksburg. Absolutely one of my favorite people on this earth and such a tremendous friend to all at BPD.
