“ I don't understand why he had to go so soon. I hope he is at peace, but not a day will go by that I won't have him on my mind. I remember all the crazy texts that always started with “hey sis..” always messaging checking on how his momma was. Then always had something crazy to say. Always making me smile. I remember me picking on him, cause it took him longer to get ready than me, and he had no hair. He always made sure that his beard was on point . He use to say “it takes work to be this sexy!” Lol. There is just so many memories of him that I will never be able to forget. I love you Jeff. My brother . I don't know how I am ever gonna be able to move past this. The loss of him was so surprising and sudden, It don't feel real. And feels like it will never stop hurting. Until we meet again bub, just know you will always be here with us. Mind, heart, and soul. I know your family will never be the same without your laugh and your constant joking around. I love all you. All the Wyrick family and Shopshear family, I send my love and prayers your way

“ I have so many memories of Jeffrey Allen and all of them are near and dear to my heart, all families have their ups and downs as Jeffrey Allen and myself have bumped heads but he always knew I was right here for him anytime day or night when he called or walked through the door the very first words I heard was hi Auntie what you doin' and that hug i always got i will miss so very much as I will miss him as much i wish heaven had a telephone so I could talk to him one more time as I know it would make me want to talk to him daily, a stairway to heaven so I could visit him. I just want you to know I will miss you deeply and I love you unconditionally ❤️ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steal. You my nephew are with your dad and sister and the rest of our family watch over us especially your momma she is broken 💔. R.I.P. my sweet sweet nephew. Love your Auntie
