“ May sweet memories and God's peace comfort all of you all during this difficult time. Thoughts and prayer to all the family. Joe was a unique and special person and he cared about everyone he met. He was always there if a need arose. He loved his Lord, his family, his church and all his friends. He never met a stranger. It is a sad farewell, but I know joy awaits you in the mansion Jesus has built for you. May God welcome him into His kingdom with open arms.
