“ Joe was one of my best friends he would stay with me a lot and Jazzy would play with my dog Buddy!! After his trailer burnt down him and Jazzy came and we mended him back together. We talked a lot about the Lord and how much he has done for us. Joe would always wash up good and EVERY time he came "Home" as I would tell him we would get him so good clothes and Brandy would give him a good haircut and a good shave! I truly loved Joe and I've prayed hard that the good Lord would welcome him home where he wouldn't suffer anymore. He loved our two kids Koltin and Reagan! He would play with them and I KNOW he loved them dearly! Well Joe-Bob as we would call him I hope to see you again some day in that mansion in the sky, I Love you ole buddy!!!
