She was most recently living her dream building her horse boarding business on the family farm in Riner, Virginia.

Judith was predeceased by her mother Edith, and father Elliott Jones, her father-in-law Vernon Baker as well as her daughter Alison Baker. Judith is survived her loving family: her husband of fifty years Eddie Baker, her daughter Diane Baker, her son Alan Baker and his wife Audrey, and her daughter Michelle Hall and her husband Seth, of Blacksburg, VA. She is also survived by her sister Josephine Jones and her brother John Jones of Virginia Beach, Virginia and by her mother-in-law, Virginia Baker of Blacksburg, Virginia as well as extended family.

“ Judi had a quiet, kind soul. Her tender, calm demeanor will be missed not only by her two-legged family but by the many four-legged cats, dogs, cows, and horses she always found room in her heart and home to care for. May peace be with her, Eddie and her family.

With all our love, Vanessa and Russ Pavlik
