

Junior Kaywood Vaught

March 18, 1945 - November 30, 2021

Junior Kaywood Vaught, age 76, of Blacksburg, Virginia gained his wings on November 30th, 2021, while at home with his son Junior. He was born in Blacksburg, VA on March 18th, 1945, to the late Percy and Lucille Vaught.

Kaywood was preceded in death by his parents, his loving wife Winnifred "Freddie" Vaught and brothers Joe Vaught, James Vaught and sister Ruth "Minnie" Cooper. He is survived by his son Junior Vaught, daughters Tammy Vaught and Katherine Reed and sisters Lorraine McGuire, Betty Mickles, Helen Vaught, Ruby Howard and brother Arwood Vaught and many loving grandchildren, nieces, nephews and extended family.

Kaywood was a loving father, husband, and grandfather. He enjoyed fixing old cars, going fishing and spending time with his children.

"You never said I'm leaving, you never said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knew why. A million times we needed you, a million times we cried. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place that no one could ever fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God took you home."

“ Kaywood was such a fun uncle. He was always making me laugh. He showed me how to make biscuits one time, when we were over at their home visiting. He made the best biscuit and so fast too. Thanks uncle Kaywood for all the fun memories . I know you are pain free and with Aunt Freddie now where you are the happiest. Until we meet again..

“ Uncle Kaywood and Aunt Freddie will always be fond memories from my childhood. Never a time that I saw them that they didn't have a funny story or a smile and a big hug to give. They loved their family so much and would talk with love about each of you. You are who you are today because of them. It is hard not to be sad but I know he is home with a new body and back with the love of his life, and all of his family who went before him. My love, thoughts and prayers are with the whole family.
