

Kathleen Elaine Slusher Moore

January 21, 2021

Kathleen Elaine Slusher Moore, 77, passed away on January 21, 2021. She was predeceased by her parents, Leonard and Sylvia Mabry Slusher of Blacksburg, and her husband, Ralph H. Moore. She is survived by her brother, Jeffery Slusher (Patricia) of Southport, NC, three nephews, Jay Slusher (Amy) of Flat Rock, NC, William Slusher (Laurie) of Hayes, VA, Andrew Slusher (Amanda) of Nashville, TN and one niece, Lauren Slusher of Austin, TX in addition to special friends (Cousin Evon, Julia and Marilyn), numerous cousins and three grandnephews (Hayes, Wilson and Ben), one grandniece (Logan) and Aunt (Diane).

A Blacksburg native, Kathleen was a gifted vocalist, studying music at Longwood College and earned her degree from Radford College. She was a former member of the Blacksburg Christian Church.

Kathleen retired as a civilian employee of the Department of Army where she served as a senior budget analyst in the Pentagon for many years.

She will be interred with her husband at Westview Cemetery in Blacksburg following a brief grave-side service at a time to be announced.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in her name to the Humane Society of Montgomery County (<http://www.hsmcshelter.com/donations.html>), PO Box 287, Blacksburg, Va. 24063, would be appreciated. Arrangements by McCoy Funeral Home, Blacksburg.

“ Kathleen, "dear", my forever friend. You will remain always in my heart. Your kindness, beautiful smile, your joy of life, our shared adventures and discoveries, our laughter and delight are all precious memories. Through you, I deepened my admiration and friendship of persons close to you and appreciated the uniqueness of your husband. Your loyalty and respect remain an example. If angels really do play harps, you're going to have to take on another musical instrument. My eternal love. Julia
