

Katie Sullivan Booth

January 15, 1971 - May 20, 2025

Katie Sullivan Booth, age 54, passed from this life Tuesday, May 20, 2025 at Our Hospice of South Central Indiana. Katie was born January 15, 1971, in Radford, Virginia, the daughter of George and Rita Barnett Sullivan. She grew up in Price's Fork, Virginia with a close-knit family and friends including two sisters, and so many aunts, uncles, and cousins nearby she thought she was related to everybody. In May 1993, she graduated from Virginia Tech and on July 24, 1993, she married Richard "Rick" Andrew Booth.

Katie lived for a short time in Madison, Wisconsin, then settled in the Detroit area and had two lovely daughters, Hannah and Erin. Mrs. Booth worked at First United Methodist Church in Plymouth, Michigan for seven years as a Nursery Director becoming the beloved Miss Katie. In 2006, she moved to Columbus Indiana, and continued to work with children eventually taking on the role of Early Children's Ministry Director at the Community of Columbus Church in Columbus, Indiana. She worked at her education as well, achieving a master's degree in 2008 in Family and Children's Ministry from Bethel Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. In total, over 15 years were spent working with young children at these churches teaching God's word at an early age. She and her husband, Rick, are members of the First Presbyterian Church, in Columbus, for the last 10 years, where she served as a deacon.

Katie was also an avid reader and simply loved her books, often pre-ordering the next installment in a series then staying up until the early morning to finish it the day it arrived. To share her love, she served the public schools in the Book Buddies program for several years. She will be deeply missed by those that know and love her.

Survivors include her husband, Rick; children, Aiden Hannah (Morgan) Booth of Bloomington, Erin Booth, Nathan Booth, both of Columbus; siblings, Jennifer (Brian) Brotherton of Riner, Virginia, Elizabeth (Clay) Scott of McCoy, Virginia; father, George Sullivan of Blacksburg, Virginia; father and mother-in-law, Andrew and Marilyn Booth of Salisbury, Maryland; sister-in-law, Catherine (Kevin) Heilman of Abbottstown, Pennsylvania; several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Rita and infant sister, Rebecca Sullivan.

A funeral was held on Friday, May the 30th at First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Dr. Felipe Martinez officiating. Inurnment will take place at the First Presbyterian Church Columbarium and at James Bane Price Cemetery in Blacksburg, Virginia. A graveside service will be held in her memory on July 28, 2025 at 1:30PM.

“ To Katie's precious family, as well as her Dad, George, her Sisters Jennifer and Elizabeth, I send my deepest condolences. May God heal your broken hearts a little each day. May he walk with you today, tomorrow and the days ahead for each of you. I am so very sorry for your loss. God comforts us, he protects us and he is our Great Physician. I know he is surrounding his loving arms around each of you. Remember the wonderful memories that she left with everyone. Cherish those days. My heart hurts for each of you. God Bless.

“ To Katie's family, the years we spent selling Bingo cards with your Mom were incredible. We all became a family through the years. I didn't get to see you as much as I would have liked when you came "home" but you left a lasting impression on me. You will be missed
