

Katie Marie Weddle

August 15, 1936 - November 7, 2021

Katie Marie Weddle, 85, of Blacksburg, went home Sunday, November 7, 2021. She was born in Montgomery County, VA on August 15, 1936 to the late Henry John and Clara "Bell" Graham. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Richard Carlton Weddle, Sr.; sons, Rickey Lonza Cobler, and Samuel Lee Dunn.

She is survived by her sons and daughter-in-law, Gairy and Doreen Dunn, Bernard Cobler; her daughter and son-in-law, Bonnie and Kenneth Terry; 17 grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, November 11, 2021 at 11:00 am in the McCoy Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Andrew Dunn officiating. Burial will follow at 2:00 pm Thursday at Evergreen Burial Park, Roanoke. The family will receive friends from 4:00 - 7:00 pm Wednesday evening at McCoy Funeral Home, Blacksburg. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Midway Baptist Church, 3909 Northfork Road, Elliston, VA 24087.

Cemetery Details

Evergreen Burial Park

1307 Summit Ave SW
Roanoke, VA 24015

Previous Events

Visitation

NOV 10. 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM (ET)

McCoy Funeral Home
150 Country Club Dr. S.W.
Blacksburg, VA 24060
(540) 552-3211
mccoyfuneralhome@verizon.net
<https://mccoyfuneralhome.com>

Service

NOV 11. 11:00 AM (ET)

McCoy Funeral Home Chapel
150 Country Club Dr S.W.
Blacksburg, VA 24060

Tribute Wall

JU

“ Mawmaw

It hurts truly to know your no longer with us I use to go to my grandmothers and my nana would take us to see mawmaw my favorite memory of what is an amazing women was when I was sitting on her couch and I started to poke my nail through the leaves of her plant, and she got up so fast and said “boy what are you doing poking wholes in my plants for” with a look that could kill needless to say I don’t touch plants anymore I’ll forever miss her little giggle and fast come backs rest easy mawmaw Cito, junior - November 09, 2021 at 03:41 PM

DF

“ Mawmaw was a caring individual who was always there for her family. My personal greatest moments were in her home in Roanoke and Sunday dinners were molding and memorable moments. All the family would get together all her Grandchildren would run and play in the backyard and she would just sit at the table with all the ladies and they would have there weekly gossip sections. I love and will miss you greatly. Love Dustin

Dustin Fontenot - November 09, 2021 at 10:40 AM