“ Kevin and I were Middle School sweethearts. Even though we eventually went our separate ways and went on to have separate lives, something always brought us back together. Kevin and I have a 40-year history...

Memories that I will cherish forever. He is not only my love, he was my best friend. Kevin is the best man I've ever known and had a heart of gold.

This one hit the feel-goods real hard.

My condolences go out to his family especially his mother and his children and grandchildren whom he loved dearly.

Kevin always put his family first just like a good man should.

Kevin, my love I promise to always keep your memory alive. I Will always Love you. See you soon my love.

Kevin was the first friend I made when I moved from Blacksburg to Christiansburg in the 9th grade. We remained close friends into our late 20s life and family would bring us together every so often over the years. He will be missed. I still see him as that skinny little boy who wouldn't take any crap from anyone growing up. Fly high old friend it's my prayer that you will find the peace and love in your journey and that you can rest in the lord's loving embrace. Happy trails
