“ I went to school with Kim and was so happy to reunite with her when she came to work with us at Gobble Stop. She was such a kind soul. I know her customers are going to miss her the most as she knew each one by name and made them feel like family. I'm sad she's no longer with us but I know she's in a much better place and no longer suffering. My deepest condolences to her family <3

“ May the kindness and goodness of your heart be a reminder to us on this side of the journey home to not fret. To not grow weary of doing right and being generous. We shall miss your sweet spirit. Your genuine heartfelt love. Your laugh. The encouragement you gave set foundations to soar. Your love for the Lord, family, and friends, inspiring. I shall always cherish your sweet words to me. I can almost bet you got dizzy just taking heaven all in. Just being so excited to be home. Seeing the Lord, the heavenly hosts, our loved ones. I can smile through tears knowing your pain is over. Now, the adventure of dancing on golden streets while praising and worshipping, and cheering us home is what your heart delights. We miss you already, and will be praying for family and friends here.
