“ Larry (and Diane) always made auto breakdowns and repairs less painful than they would have been otherwise. Larry was like a member of the family—you knew you could trust him, that he had your best interest at heart, that he would do the best he could for you. I have told many people the story of the time he installed a new clutch for me. It took many hours of his hard work and he charged me so little for it that I complained that it should be more. He said “it’s the right amount for replacing a clutch, so just pay that amount”.
