“ My heart is truly broken over the loss of a wonderful neighbor. Larry was quiet and humble but I enjoy those times when he would tell me about the wildlife it's in the woods behind our house. Or share a memory about hunting blood root there. Godspeed Larry! ”

“ Larry was a special person. So humble and quiet but so kind to everyone he met. All of us cousins had so much fun together - wet corn cob fights, running thru the fields! I remember one time Delores and Larry were using Papaw's chopping block, and the ax slipped and Delores cut the end of Larry's heel. That was back in the days when we all went barefooted.

Todd, Andy and Anita, you were so good to your brother. We will surely keep you and your whole family in our prayers -- God is so good, He always looks to the heart and sees our need.
