“ Larry was a one of a kind friend when he cared about you it was genuine. He had the biggest heart like his Mom Mary ,we had so many laughs and some crys together hugged and comforted each other .He turned my son Paul into a true hokie fan when he was younger and turned me into hokie fan too. There will never be another Larry so sweet honest loveable to us all.Im praying for Marsha,David,Randy and Amanda that God comfort them and hold them close in his arms. I love you all very much. (Larry some morning we will sit down talk over all the things we love on streets of gold and praise our Lord and sing again with all our loved ones . We will never forget you cause you are truly loved.) RIP my friend .
