“ Diane and Shannon please know that if you should need anything just let me know. I loved Lance and that is what I called him and will forever call him Lance. He was like a brother that I always wanted and we went to so many places together and had so much fun. I will miss him greatly and that huge smile he always wore even on his worst day. You both are in my prayers.

“Prayers to the Family. I met Lawrence at the Auctions with my Sister Rochelle and if he seen me and didn't see Rochelle he would always ask where's my sidekick? Rochelle and I would help him if he needed it at the auctions. Rochelle more than me. Lawrence was a very caring person and would help anyone with anything. I will miss him. RIP my Friend.

“Lawrence was a regular customer, friend, and even an occasional employee at The Blacksburg Tavern where we are all in shock to learn of his passing. He always joined us in the bar room so that we could chat with him while he had dinner. At one point he offered to help in the kitchen if we were ever short staffed. I took him up on that offer on a couple of occasions. He was a friend to our entire staff always interacting with everyone there including other customers with a friendly sense of humor. If a server asked him if they could bring him anything else he'd always say, "Yeah, a million dollars." Lawrence was the type of person to help a friend in need. He will be missed by all of us.

“ Lance and I have traveled down many a roads together to hear gospel singers and sometimes just to get away. He was like a brother I never had to me and always willing to help in any way he could. Many times we just gathered around the piano at my house and sang gospel tunes as we also did driving up and down the roads we traveled. To say I'm going to miss him is truly an understatement!! I've already experienced not receiving his phone calls saying where are we going to eat tonight or when are we going on another cruise. We were already planning for National Quarter Convention next month and talking about a trip to Hawaii. I can't wait to see you on the other side my friend!! But until then I'll have a void that will be hard to fill!! RIP
