“ I'm sending prayers for Lindsey's wife, children, family and friends. I can't think of one hard word ever said between Lindsey and I. We picked, and horse played. Lindsey was always smiling with a crooked grin when he see me coming and call out my name. He was a true friend and brother. Love you, Lindsey. We will see each other again.

“ *Vicki & family,
We were shocked and saddened to hear of Lindsey's passing. Having known Thurman from our years at Federal-Mogul, it seems we've known Lindsey his entire life. And what a wonderful man he became! We have all lost a treasured friend.
We will hold you, Edith, and the Akers family in our hearts and prayers.

Vicki
I am so sorry about the loss of your husband. I remember how kind you both were to me when I taught Shane in Kindergarten.
Give Shane my love & I will be praying for all the family. I am sure my husband (Leo) worked with him for several years at FM.
Love & prayers
