

Lloyd Allen Moore Jr.

May 5, 1971 - April 25, 2025

Lloyd Allen Moore, Jr. born May 5th, 1971 in Radford, VA left this world peacefully for his eternal home on April 25th, 2025. He was the son of Ruth and Bobby Moore. Allen spent the last twenty one years with his best friend and life partner, April Fisher. Many memories were made, life lessons were taught, and improvising to build the perfect tree stand became a non-negotiable.

As a husband, father, pap-paw, and friend, he leaves behind the legacy of working hard and loving harder.

Allen had many passions: farming with April, long Sunday drives, hunting season, watching his kids grow up on the diamond, the Dallas Cowboys... win or lose..., and of course a good ole ice cream cone. Allen was known for his southern hospitality, ability to withstand any hardship, and the occasional "cutting a rug" from time to time. He has impacted so many people's lives and will remain in all of our hearts. We will all keep our heads held high. Allen, you have left a lasting impression that no one can replace.

Rest easy old man, we all love you.

I know because of life causes people to be apart. I remeber all the good times we had playing basket ball and football many evenings in front yard after school. I enjoyed all the laughs and poking fun in school. Just know you going to be remebered. You have a special place in my heart of all the groing up memories. Your one of the lucky ones with Jesus now.

“ April 30, 2025. Prayers for the whole family of Allen Moore. Years ago, we would meet at The Christiansburg Recreation Center walk and work out. We talked about family, fishing, hunting , Christiansburg High School and work. I needed some work done at the house, he said I'll come out and do it. He could fix anything that was broke. Gone but not forgotten. RIP. Glenn Cochran
