

Lois Campbell

June 8, 2026

It is with profound sadness and deep love that we announce the passing of Lois Campbell, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. As a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Lois leaves behind a legacy of unconditional love, resilience, and devotion. The values she instilled, the memories she created, and the love she shared will continue to live on in the hearts of those who were blessed to know her. While her absence leaves an immeasurable void, her family finds comfort in knowing that her love and spirit will remain with them always. She will be remembered not only for what she did, but for who she was a remarkable woman whose kindness, strength, and love touched countless lives.

She leaves behind a family who will forever cherish her memory, including her daughter, Debora Studebaker, and son-in-law, Ronald Hogue; grandchildren Emily Kristoff and husband Jared Kristoff, along with their children Aiden, Abigail, and Andi; Jared Smith and wife Sara Smith, along with their children Laurel and Emmett; Tyler Smith and wife Lupe Smith, along with their children Hannah and Sadie; Kayla Powell and husband Hunter Powell; Racheal Smith and James Linkous, along with their children Grayson and Nolan; She is also survived by her son, James Campbell, and daughter-in-law, Janet Campbell; grandchildren Brittany Graybill and husband Lewis Graybill, along with their son Carter Graybill; and Madelyn Sadler and husband Trevor Sadler, along with their children Liliana Sadler and Elijah Sadler. Lois is further survived by former son-in-law Randall Smith (Jacob and Simon), former daughter-in-law Julia Snider and former son-in-law Byron Studebaker. Proceeded in death by mother and father Emma Ryan and Roy Macdonald, her sister Grace Hewitt and her adoptive parents Ruth Conger and James Conger. As well as many extended family members and dear friends whose lives were touched by her kindness and love.

Visitation will be held 10:00am -11:00am on Friday June 19th at McCoy and burial immediately following at Roselawn
