“ John, I am so very sorry to learn of the loss of your dear Lois. I only met her a couple of times, but you two seemed like the perfect pair. I will always remember your visits over at the Links. May you find comfort in your memories.

“ Lois was married to my cousin, Francis (John) Porterfield. She was a beautiful lady who always greeted me with warmth and friendship whenever I saw her. She and my mother shared many memories of people they knew whenever they met. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. My deepest sympathy and love to Francis and Greg. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ We had the pleasure of meeting Lois & John Porterfield when they came on numerous occasions to visit their son Greg Porterfield while he was the Pastor of our First Christian Church of Breckenridge TX for many years.

We really enjoyed visiting with them while they were here visiting Greg.

John & Greg, our hearts go out to you both. Keeping y'all in our thoughts and prayers. I KNOW that Lois is watching over you both..call us anytime..we love y'all!
