“ In day...our “BFF” group of four from university days will keep your memory alive through our pictures over the years. Though we went our separate ways after school, we kept in touch and that bond never faded. You are now with the Lord where you are meant to be. I will cherish those moments during our youth, then when we reconnected on the Alaskan cruise in 2001, and especially when you visited me in Edmonton not too long ago. I will miss you deeply. Rest in peace my bff.

“ My Tita was one of the most kind, selfless, giving people I've ever known. From my earliest memories at her apartment in Arlington Heights to her encouragement to pursue a career in HR, she always shined a bright light to show the way. I will miss her dearly. ❤️
