

Lynn Carol Parsons Price

October 9, 1941 - April 2, 2021

Lynn Carol Parsons Price of Blacksburg, VA, passed away hand in hand with her son Tad at her side, at 6:26 pm on Friday April 2, 2021 at Roanoke Memorial Hospital. She was born on October 9, 1941 in Buffalo, NY to the late Henry and Anna Schmidt Parsons.

All who met Lynn truly knew her, she was honestly genuine, she was Lynn PERIOD!! To describe her in one word would be classy. More importantly she is an adored mother, a dutiful dog momma, the sincerest of friends, an amazing aunt, an attentive sister, a super secret keeper, and a best friend to anyone she met. She is survived by her beloved son Tad (James Gideon Price Jr), and her long time companion Earl Brown, her sisters ,Joan Pempcil, Lois Birdwell, and Geraldine Wilson. As well as family Camie Warren, and Amy Lynn Lively "The Girls", and many other friends and family that will miss her dearly. She will forever be in our hearts and the memories she made will exceed our lifetime.

540-951-4410 will never be the same again, the cute little giggle when she heard your voice and discovered who was calling, because heaven forbid she get caller ID, will be missed by all I'm sure of that. Until we meet again give uncle Jimmy (James Gideon Price) and Granny (Anna Catherine Parsons) a big hug for all of us.

Funeral Services will be held Thursday, April 8, 2021 at 2:00 pm in the McCoy Funeral Home Chapel with burial following. Arrangements by McCoy Funeral Home, Blacksburg.

“ Tadd and Earl,

Tadd, I will always member the summers I spent with Lynn, Jimmy, you and Granny. Your Mom was so happy and upbeat! Fun times were had at your home and the beach .I loved Auntie Lynn. When I was small I use to watch out the window for your Dad to drive up in the VW to come see your Mom and they would go get in the car all smiles. It always tickled me to see your Dad get in the tiny VW ! He was so tall and handsome your Mom so beautiful and small. I have not seen you for so long and my heart go's out to you for your loss. We all wish we could be there with you.

Earl, We have never met but I know you must be a great guy because Lynn cared so much. I am so sad for your loss.

Love,

“Tad. So sorry to hear of Aunt Lynn passing. My thoughts are with you. I remember when I was very young watching out the front window as the big yellow school bus would stop out front to pick up Lynn and Gerry when they were in high school. I also remember how much Lynn loved to dance. When Uncle Jimmy was in the Air Force and he and your mom were dating they would put on a record and try new dances. I think I was about five or six when they taught me the Twist. They were always laughing and having fun.

Earl my thoughts are with you as I know your heart is full of love and sorrow. The last time I saw you and Lynn was when Mum (Joan), Gerry and I came up to visit Lynn. I had my baby daughter Rebecca with us, she is twenty-three now, so that was some time ago.

Thinking of you both and my sweet Aunt Lynn

“Having known Lynn for many years, she was a cheerful and kind person. She truly cared about people and animals as well. Her smile and chuckle amplified her good nature. My thoughts and prayers are with you Lynn and with your family as well. You will be missed but to your family and other loved ones, the many fond memories shared will always be with you in heart and in spirit. My prayers to all. John Skelton

“ To Earl; I am so sorry to hear of Lyn's passing, I know it tears your world apart. Lyn- warm, loving, authentic and vivacious, I am glad I got to meet and know her. She put me at ease immediately and made me feel like we were old friends, that was her specialty for anyone she came in contact with, always a pleasure to be in her company. May all your special memories and time spent together bring you some comfort in the coming weeks, months & years. Lyn will be missed all the people she met and the lives she touched! May God bless and keep you. Sincerely, Joy Nester

“ My thoughts & prayers are with Tad. We work together for many years. He spoke of his mom often & he always looked so forward to visiting with her in Va. I wish there were words to ease this heartache but know if there is anything I can do let me know.
