“ I had a memory of Peg pop up on my Facebook feed and this is how I learned of her passing. We lost touch when I left Blacksburg, but Peg was always a kind soul and I'm sad to hear she's no longer with us.

“ Peg was a Girl Scout counselor of mine at Lycogis, back in the 70s. I think the summer I was in her unit was the most fun that I ever had a camp! My love and care goes out to her family and close friends

“ Every time I visited Peg, she gave me a new cool gemstone, or handcrafted pin, or pretty fabric. I feel lessened for not having been as close as I should have in recent years. I wish you all the joyous reunions at the end of the Rainbow Bridge, Peg.

“ Peg was an individual to be sure. Musical science has not yet conceived of the drum that Peg marched to. She loved animals, plants, and people. She was kind and welcoming to young people whether they were in college or were just trying to make a go of it with little in their pockets. She will be missed, and Blacksburg VA will seem a little harsher, and plainer without her presence.
