“ Mrs, Bird, you remember me,..? I was the little girl that lived up the hill in the 60s and 70"s! You were such a wonderful mom...so much that I practically lived there! I WAS THE ONE that climbed through the window and out of it, I even ran away from Wyoming to Blacksburg with wanting to be part of your family. THERESA was my nemesis when we first met, we scrapped every day after school until we finally became best friends. I discovered crackers with cheese and yes with olives at Libby's wedding. You had this plant that climbed around your whole living room. You will be remembered and missed. My heart to Libby, Barbara, Theresa and Becky and family. Your with your true love now and that comforts me and I know you will be there when it's our time to go to our lord and father's . Thank you for all your smiles and Love.

“ Sisters,
The loss of a mother is traumatic even when "there is no more suffering." I mourn your loss. May you find peace in your grief and strength in the days ahead. The trip together during the pandemic will be a lasting memory as you celebrate your mother's life.
Love you Theresa. Jean
