“ To all of Melisa’s precious family and friends I’m truly so sorry for your loss. Melisa was my best friend and I couldn’t have made it through school without her by my side. So many beautiful memories flood my mind and they were all happy ones. She turned everything into sunshine!

I’m so thankful for every single memory I will hold forever in my heart and know that I will see my beautiful friend in Heaven one day. Prayers to you all! Love ya Kathy!

“ I graduated from Shawsville high school a year ahead of Melissa and I couldn’t believe when I saw that she was living in Gloucester, Virginia because I live 20 minutes from there and I was shocked I hadn’t run into her at some point. I am filled with great sadness that she is no longer with us. She was always so much fun and just a very sweet girl. I’m extremely sorry for your loss. I will be praying for the family as you work through this life change without her.
