“ I will miss seeing her greatly and she was truly a kind hearted loving person. If only you all knew how many talks that we had and how many times we laughed it would make you laugh as well. She had a way about her that not many people have and it showed in her eyes, in her smile, and in her walk. A proud mother who loved her babies more than life itself and then came her grand babies and her eyes would glow when she talked about them as well. God knew what he was doing when he put her on this earth. It wasn't for as long as he wanted her to stay but she was here long enough to leave an ever lasting remembrance on all of us. To you Nancy, 'Later' for never will the other word be spoken by me to you. Love you always...

It's been a few years now but seems like yesterday. I grew up with Nancy. In our teens we became good friends! Words are hard to come up with right now. She was a Precious Gift from Heaven Above. Idk how anyone...especially her own brother could hurt or worse Kill her! She was the most beautiful, sweet, loving, kind, generous & funny person I've ever had known in my 60 yrs of life! She loved her babies, grandchildren & her family more than anything else in her life! I miss her terribly 😞 & I've cried 😭 my eyes out so many times! Nancy had to be my sister in another life. I can't explain that but I felt it! I KNOW she's in Heaven with her son Michael that she loved more than life & her parents...who sadly passed away just wks after her! I'll never forget the fun we had & I pray to see her again someday! God bless you dear friend. I will always love ❤️ you!
